

Corrine Rapley's oil paintings capture the intricate play of light on Australia's diverse landscapes, particularly on its coastlines and tranquil waterways.

GOLDEN LIGHT, delves further into the theme of light, offering viewers a captivating glimpse into the artist's portrayal of Australia's natural beauty.

The artist's studio, south of Mandurah WA provides stunning views over the waters and vegetation of Peel-Harvey Estuary, inspiring the prominent theme of sunrise, moonrise, and sunset depicted in many of her artworks.

Primarily using oils, she also continues to explore techniques using gold leaf under oils as another way to express the brilliance and shininess of light.
